Federal Officer Identifies Body Among Dead At Sierra Blanca

LOVE ROUTS BANDITS

Posse Reinforces Rancher In Pursuit of Raiders, Who Are Cornered in Green Canyon

FIGHT CONTINUES UNTIL DUSK

SIERRA BLANCA, Texas, Aug. 31.—The body of General Pascual Orozco, hero of the Madero revolution of Mexico, lies tonight in an undertaker's establishment at Van Horn, Texas. Beside him are the bodies of his companions killed during the fight Monday with a posse composed of troops of the Thirtieth Cavalry, custom house officials and civilians. The body has been positively identified as that of Orozco by a government official from El Paso.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 31.—A report received from an American sent to Sierra Blanca, Tex., to investigate a report that Gen. Pascual Orozco had been killed in a fight with a posse of Americans, says: "I am positive that one of the five Mexicans killed by a posse near Sierra Blanca was General Pascual Orozco."

The American who identified the body as that of Orozco was one of the government officials who arrested him last June at Newman, N. M. Identification is made positive.

Later reports from the scene of the shooting state that the identification of Orozco was made positive by papers, a watch and a ring found on one of the bodies. According to this report Orozco was shot four times.

Orozco was arrested June 27, at Newman, N. M., together with Gen. Victoriano Huerta, on charges of conspiracy to violate United States neutrality laws by attempting to launch a revolutionary movement in Mexico. He was released on $7,500 bond but was kept under surveillance by federal officers. A few nights later Orozco disappeared. He has been reported at various points in northern Mexico and on the American side since that time, but never has been definitely located.

Members of Orozco's Band.
Officials report of the shooting today from Van Horn, Tex., near the scene of the affray, confirmed last night's report. It was said the five Mexicans killed belonged to Orozco's band which had been camping near Bosque Bonito, on the Mexican side. It was said they arrived at Dick Love's ranch, near Sierra Blanca, yesterday and forced the cook to supply them with dinner while they pressed a ranch hand to shoe horses. While they were eating Dick Love and two cowboys were seen by the raiders approaching the house and the Mexicans fled, shooting as they rode, pursued by Love and his companions who delayed only to arouse the farmers by telephone.

Posse Reinforces Love.
A posse of civilians, government officials and troopers of the Thirtieth Cavalry reinforced Love and the chase continued into Culberson county, where about two miles from the base of High Lonesome mountain, the raiders were cornered in the Green river canyon. The fight continued until dusk when the last raider was killed.

General Pascual Orozco was the son of a merchant in Chihuahua. When he reached manhood he became a "bullion conductor" and with his party of guards escorted the pacific trains loaded with bullion from the mines in Chihuahua through the bandit-infested hills to the railroad. He was one of the first to join Francisco Madero when the latter organized his revolt against President Porfirio Diaz in 1910. He took the field in northern Chihuahua and with his company of bullion guards as a nucleus, soon raised the most effective fighting force under Madero's banner. He remained in the field throughout the Madero revolution even through the time when Madero himself was forced into hiding in the United States, escaping the pursuing federalists by his knowledge of the mountains and the mobility of his mounted men.

Took Command of Juarez.
Orozco was the senior general among those with Madero at the taking of Juarez and took command of the captured town. When Madero became president, Orozco accompanied him to Mexico City, but it was not long before a disagreement arose over large sums of money Orozco alleged to be due him and his father, Colonel Orozco. Orozco abandoned his allegiance to Madero and again took to the hills, taking with him the majority of his men.

This command became known as the "Colorado" or "red flaggers," from the banner under which they fought and earned the bitter hatred of the followers of Madero through their harsh treatment of the people.

TUETONS THREATEN RUSSIAN WEST WING

VON BUELOW FIGHTS FOR BRIDGE- HEAD SOUTH OF FRIEDRICHSTADT

French Continue Artillery Attacks on German Lines—Italians Report Capture of Strong Austrian Position.

London, August 31st.—The Russians thus far have prevented the Germans and Austrians from carrying out their efforts to force back the two extreme wings of the armies of Grand Duke Nicholas. At the northern extremity of the front that portion of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's army commanded by General Von Buelow is still fighting for the bridgehead south of Friedrichstadt, while the Austro-German forces under General Bothmer, who broke through the Russian lines on either side of Brezany, Galicia, have been checked at some points on the Stripa river.

Along the rest of the front the Germans claim to be making headway, although some who got through the forest region east of Briastok have suffered a reverse at the hands of the Russian rear guard. The points of most interest, however, are at the two wings. The Germans near Friedrichstadt are well east of Riga and military experts here say that unless the Russians can dispose a considerable force, so as to threaten the Teutonic flank, it appears impossible that Friedrichstadt can be held much longer without grave danger.

The threat against the other wing is not so serious, as it is more distant and the difficulties of the country are too great for rapid advance. In the western theatre of war the French continue artillery attacks on the German lines and concentration points without as yet any evidence of a general offensive.

The Italians are more active, and tonight report the capture of another strong Austrian position southeast of Trent and of some Austrian trenches on the Carso on the road to Trieste. According to Italian accounts the Italian progress while naturally slow on account of the nature of the country to be traversed, is continuous.

Except for the Turkish official reports already published there is no news of the fighting Saturday and Sunday on the Gallipoli peninsula. It is understood that the Balkan negotiations are moving more quickly. The Bulgarian minister had a long conference today with Sir Edward Grey, the British minister of foreign affairs, after which the ambassadors of the entente powers and the Serbian minister called on the foreign minister.

MASONS ELECT OFFICERS.
San Francisco, Aug. 31.—Election of officers consumed most of today's session at the twelfth triennial convocation of the Grand Council of the United States, a Masonic institution. Among the officers chosen were: Edward W. Wellington, Ellsworth, Kansas, general grand master; Geo. A. Newell, Medina, N. Y., general deputy grand master; Henry W. Mordhurst, Fort Wayne, Ind., general grand treasurer; William F. Cleveland, Harlan, Iowa, general grand recorder.

OFFER TO BUY COTTON.
Berlin, Aug. 31, via London, Sept. 1.—German business men have transmitted to the United States an offer to buy one million bales of cotton. The price offered was 15 cents a pound, payable on delivery of the cotton in a German harbor.

of the country through which they made their raids.

Joining Huerta Adherents.
With the fall of Madero, Orozco joined the adherents of Huerta and became one of the most active of the military chiefs of the latter.

He took part in scores of engagements and skirmishes in Chihuahua, Durango, Coahuila and Nuevo Leon. Following the rapid successes of the constitutionalist commanders, Villia, Gonzalez, Obregon and others, determined efforts were made to capture Orozco and his band, but he managed to slip through the net in each instance. He became a will-o-the-wisp in Mexico, appearing and disappearing in the most unexpected places. He was one of the federal generals at the battle of Ojinaga. The majority of the federal officers and more than 4,000 men were forced to flee into the United States after that disastrous defeat. All were interned except Orozco who made his escape and soon organized another command.

Successfully Evaded Troops.
Thoroughly familiar with the border he slipped in and out of Mexico apparently at will, although immediate execution was the kindest fate he might have expected if captured by the constitutionalists. He was equally successful in avoiding United States troops and federal officers. He is known to have lived for months within a short distance of El Paso, but although a dozen expeditions were sent in search of him he was not captured.

With the arrival in the United States of General Huerta, Orozco joined his former chief and accompanied him on the journey to El Paso, which culminated in the arrest of both at Newman, N. M., last June, by United States officials. After being released on bond he again escaped a few nights later and it is supposed has been in the vicinity where he was killed since that time.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS EIGHTEEN MINERS

BLAST OCCURS DEEP IN COAL MINE AT BOSWELL, PA.

Motorman Dies of Injuries—Condition of Three Others Who Were Badly Burned Is Critical—Believe Naked Lamp Caused Ignition of Gas Pocket.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 31.—Eighteen miners were killed by a gas explosion in the Orenda mine of the Merchants' Coal company at Boswell today. Three hundred men were working in the mine at the time of the blast. John Beagle, a motorman, died in a local hospital late today of injuries and the condition of three others who were badly burned was critical. All the bodies recovered tonight were so badly burned that identification was impossible. The explosion occurred deep in the mine this morning, but owing to the great amount of wreckage, it was early tonight before the spot where the blast took place had been reached and the extent of the explosion known. Officials of the company announced at midnight that the bodies of all the dead had been recovered. The ignition of a gas pocket by a naked lamp was believed to have been responsible. A score of miners were slightly burned or overcome by gas.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY TO DISRUPT COLORADO NATIONAL GUARD

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 21.—A conspiracy to disrupt the National Guard of Colorado and to bring about wholesale indictments of state officers and county mine operators was charged in a partial report of the military court of inquiry, made public tonight by order of Governor George A. Carlson.

The alleged conspiracy, according to the report, was entered into by a party of detectives under direction of A. M. Belcher of West Virginia. General Counsel for the United Mine Workers of America, and C. D. Elliott, former adjutant general of West Virginia.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the stand of the party in the last elections and declaring the speech of Elihu Root at Albany, yesterday, indicting invisible government and alleged by-partisan parties of the two old parties, indicated the necessity for the two parties.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE MAKES BIG DROP

Decline Imperils Tremendous Export Trade of United States

STERLING HEADED DOWN

English Pound Falls to Lowest Value Yet Recorded—May go to Levels Unthought of ## AMERICANS MAY FEEL PINCH

New York, Aug. 31.—The tremendous export trade of the United States in which the country leads the world for the first time, was imperiled today by an alarming drop in foreign exchange rates, notably sterling. At the close of business tonight the English pound fetched only $4.554 in American money. This is a drop from its normal value of 31c; from its value Aug. 1, of 29c and from its quotation last night of 30c, a 24 hour break in values without precedent. It marked the lowest value yet recorded in an excited market where every day recently has set a new record of depreciation; and it indicated that sterling was headed downward with a momentum and velocity that promised to take it to levels unthought of ten days ago.

In the face of this rapid depreciation, bankers here were wondering tonight how much longer Great Britain would pay the premium and buy goods in this market which she can get elsewhere, where the value of her money is greater. They were of the opinion that American factories and producers would feel the pinch if rates went much lower.

English Pound Depreciated.
The reason and the remedy seemed clear in the minds of international bankers here. The English pound has become depreciated, they said, because London has failed to provide a method here of paying the big bills now coming due to American shippers. The remedy would be, they thought, to establish quickly—very quickly, unless sterling should become still further depressed—a mammoth credit loan in this market. America does not want British gold to pay for supplies, on this point opinion was unanimous. The vaults of Wall street and the banks in the interior already are choking with gold. More gold would tend to create a period of enormous inflation.

What New York bankers want to do is to lend Great Britain an enormous sum of money to be spent in paying bills here, on approved collateral of high class American railroads, and industrial stocks and bonds. Officially, neither Great Britain nor her financiers have given an inkling to bankers here of what they intend to do to remedy the situation.

London Not Awakened to Situation.
London has not awakened to the full measure of the situation, in the opinion of most international bankers here. The tardiness of English bankers, it was said, is being paid for in British gold at rates extremely dear. The depreciation of the pound sterling, it was emphatically asserted, is not costing American manufacturers a cent for all bills payable by Great Britain here are payable in dollars. London bankers and buyers are paying the toll—a premium of more than 6 per cent.

The only bright spot in the outlook was the probability that the prevailing rates would persuade British holders of American securities to part with them now and reap the 6 per cent. profit which thus would accrue. These securities are needed as collateral for the contemplated British credit to be established here. It is estimated that there are American securities now in Great Britain to the value of $2,000,000,000. The high tide of foreign bills is on its way to New York now. By the end of next month a flood of bills for cotton and wheat will deluge the markets. This movement is hardly yet on its way. Its sweep will be tremendous—far greater, it was thought, than the great current of war munition bills that has undermined the markets—and bankers here conjured up a mental picture of English pounds selling at or around $4 unless the rate bulwarked soon by a mammoth credit loan.

Never have the foreign exchange markets been so thoroughly demoralized. Rates tumbled today not by the usual eights but a cent or more at a time. Widely divergent quotations came out simultaneously from different bankers to be succeeded quickly by other quotations at invariably lower figures. One big banking house quoted a rate on sterling to a bank at Havana shortly before the market opened. By the time Havana could accept the rate was five cents lower. The tendency of the market was so evident that speculators caught the spirit of excitement and participated, adding to the demoralization. In some instances even messengers, attendants and clerks pooled their interests and sold sterling, figuring that they could not lose. And they didn't. A comparison of rates quoted today, the last of August, with those that prevailed

STATES TREASURY IS IN EXCELLENT CONDITION

M'ADOO SAYS HE HAS NEVER CON- SIDERED A BOND ISSUE

Secretary Adds Congress May Be Asked to Extend the Period of Operation of the Emergency Tax Beyond Its Present Limit.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The United States treasury is in excellent condition and there is no present prospect that the administration will issue bonds or short term notes to fill its coffers, according to a statement by Secretary McAdoo today on his return to Washington from a month's vacation in Malibu.

"It's too soon to talk about revenue legislation," said Mr. McAdoo. "I don't know what the estimates will be and consequently cannot talk about revenues." He added, however, that it seemed probable congress would be asked to extend the period of operation of the emergency tax beyond December 31, its present limit. No consideration had been given, he declared to the advisability of replacing the duty on sugar, lowering the exemption limit of the income tax law or other plans suggested to increase revenues.

ENDORSES SUGGESTION FOR HEAVY ARTILLERY TRAINING SCHOOL

Retired Major General Says Arsenal at Rock Island Offers Exceptional Facilities.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Major General E. C. Young, retired, today endorsed a suggestion previously made, that a heavy artillery training school for young military officers be established at Rock Island. The general said the arsenal at that place offered exceptional facilities for such a training school.

"There is no doubt that the United States army must hereafter make great strides in the development of heavy ordnance," General Young added. "A heavy artillery school at Rock Island would enable young officers to acquire a thorough training in the manufacturing end as well as in scientific gunnery."

IDENTIFY ONE BODY FOUND IN FORWARD COMPARTMENT OF F-4

HONOLULU, Aug. 31.—One body found in the forward compartment of the United States submarine F-4, which was wrecked in the harbor here March 25th, was identified today as that of George E. Ashcroft, of Los Angeles, gunner's mate, first class. Ashcroft's body, although little more than a group of bones, was recognized by a dental bridge, naval officials said.

Many of the bodies entangled in the debris of the submarine are in fragments. Work of clearing away the deposits of sand proceeded rapidly during the day. It was not expected that the remaining bodies would be recovered before tomorrow.

SUGGESTS THAT U-BOAT MAY HAVE BEEN SUNK

GERMAN ADMIRALTY HAS NO NEWS ON SINKING OF ARABIC

Most of Craft on West Coast of England Have Returned, According to High Official—Declines to Say How Many Are Still Out.

Berlin, Aug. 31.—Via London. The German admiralty today advanced the suggestion that the submarine which may have torpedoed the steamer Arabic possibly had been ordered or had been sunk by the British. A high official of the admiralty, in again declaring that absolutely no news on the sinking of the Arabic was as yet available, said: "Would it not be lamentable if the submarine should have been lost and we should never learn what happened? Soon after the Arabic sank I said we should in all probability have the details by the end of August, or early in September at the latest."

"Most of our boats which were on the west coast of England at the time have now returned but none so far knows anything about the Arabic. It probably will be possible within a very short time—I cannot say precisely how many days, to tell whether our apprehensions regarding the submarine are correct."

The official would not say whether one or more of the submarines in question still were out, nor how long any one vessel had been away from its base but stated suggestively: "They seldom remain out longer than three weeks and we usually get a report on any torpedoing operations in from eight to fourteen days—rarely later than a fortnight after the occurrence."

Throughout the day Japanese events of all kinds were carried on in lavish scale. The anniversary of the birth of the emperor of Japan was made the motive from the day.

MRS. MEYERS IS CHIEF WITNESS IN HEARING OF MRS. HAMLIN

Testifies That She Frequently Saw Mrs. Hamlin at Davis Home—Admits Making False Affidavits.

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 31.—Mrs. Clara Meyers of Charleston, W. Va., was the chief witness today in the preliminary hearing of the case of Mrs. Mamie Hamlin, daughter-in-law of a former attorney general of Illinois, who is charged with having caused the death by poison of Mrs. Polly Davis, a wealthy widow of Portsmouth, this county.

Mrs. Meyers, who is alleged to have been an accomplice of Mrs. Hamlin, was placed on the witness stand by the commonwealth. She testified that she frequently saw Mrs. Hamlin at the Davis home and that on one occasion Mrs. Hamlin prepared a meal and baked a cake there. Mrs. Meyers said Mrs. Hamlin left a piece of the cake in a napkin asking Mrs. Davis to eat it later.

Under cross-examination Mrs. Meyers said she had made a false affidavit in West Virginia in regard to Mrs. Davis' will and that she made false statements in the presence of attorneys and other parties in Jackson, but she declared the false statements made because Mrs. Hamlin was trying to bribe her.

POINT OUT DEFECTS IN "F" TYPE DIVERS

Make Public Results of Probe made Just After Loss of F-4

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MEN

Findings Indicate Possibility that Crew Might Have Been Killed by Chlorine Gas

NEW BOARD IS NAMED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Serious weaknesses common to all four of the navy's "F" type of the submarine are pointed out in the report made public today of the board of inquiry which made an investigation at Honolulu immediately after the loss last March of the F-4 with her crew of twenty-two. So far as could be determined before the boat was raised, the board found that every possible precaution had been taken within the limitations of design and the report pays tribute to the efficiency of the men who lost their lives. With the F-4 now in drydock at Honolulu a new board, headed by Rear Admiral Boush, has been appointed by the navy department to ascertain, if possible, the cause of the disaster.

Indicates Cause of Death.
Although the first board reported it could draw no conclusion as to the cause, the possibility that the crew might have been killed by chlorine gas was indicated in the finding that: "Sea water has at times seeped into the cells of the storage batteries of the boats of the 'F' class, causing the evolution of chlorine gas which is quickly destructive of life."

In connection with the principal finding of the board it is pointed out that each defective condition reported as to the F-4 obtained in all boats of the class.

"The electro motors were in good condition, having been repaired by the ship's force, assisted by the navy yard force at the naval station at Pearl Harbor.

"The storage batteries were in good condition within the limitations of design.

"On the F-4 on March 4th, 1915, one electric blower was stopped for a short period, probably from a ground in the ventilating blower's electrical circuit, a hydrogen explosion took place which damaged the battery deck and broke several separators of the cells of the storage batteries."

"The conditions under which an explosion of hydrogen is always possible, obtain in all the boats of the 'F' class."

"The covering over the storage batteries or the battery deck in accordance with specifications for submarine torpedo boats No. 23 is to be practically gas tight and water-tight, which conditions does not obtain, as this so-called battery deck does not permit water to seep into the batteries."

"A comparatively small amount of sea water can cause the liberation of sufficient chlorine gas to asphyxiate the crew of a submarine while in a submerged condition."

"In general the condition of the F-4 compared favorably with the other three boats of the same type. The boat was maintained at as high a state of efficiency as was practicable within the limitations and deficiencies existing in her type."

"The action of the F-4 has, in common with the other boats of this same type, in diving or trimming down, been irregular and the depth to which a submarine torpedo boat would descend is uncertain and the method of checking such a descent is dependent more upon the skill of the commanding officer than upon the mechanical appliances of the boat."

"The officers and men on the F-4, were, in so far as can be ascertained, diligent and alert in the performance of their duties and no reluctance was shown by them in operating the said F-4, even though the said officers and crew were well aware of the existing defects."

Municipal Golf Links.

Jacksonville is one of a very few cities having municipal golf links and the great interest which has already been manifested on the Park course gives evidence of the wisdom of the action taken. A San Antonio paper in commenting on the establishment of links there mentions a point which may not have occurred to the local park board: "The announcement of Commissioner Lambert that he intends, as soon as practicable, to establish a municipal golf links in the south end of Breckenridge park is a long step in the direction of making this city an attractive place for the tourist. It is something that should have been done long ago, and if Commissioner Lambert carries out his plan in the proper way he will be entitled to the lasting gratitude of the people of San Antonio."

Dr. Black's Monument.

It is written that men are known by their works. Judged by this high standard Dr. Greene V. Black, who yesterday closed his long life, was a man of giant stature. Almost in his boyhood days he gave earnest of the strength of mind which later was to make him famous the world over. Thus for more than fifty years he made written contributions to the text books and literature of dentistry and this valuable work continued until early in the present year. One who knew him well said yesterday that it was the intense interest in his work that enabled him to maintain his strength of mind and body all through the years and nearly until the end of the journey. He worked many hours each day and far into the night. When engrossed in experimental work or in writing he seemed to forget all else and no matter of personal comfort occurred to him.

Some men in their special work, great as it may be, have their own interests somewhat in mind also and seek wealth and position. Dr. Black had no thought of self in his activities but was occupied in a broad way in his endeavor to develop the science in which he was so much interested and sought through his development work to blaze the way for other workers in the profession and thus to give aid to humanity.

While it was given to him to have encomiums heaped upon him because of his research work, his inventions, his writings, for him the fact that he accomplished things was sufficient reward. In later years just as was true in the earlier years he was readily accessible to anyone interested in the problems of dentistry. Fame brought to him no austerity of manner or spirit and he preferred to consider himself a humble worker who had accomplished some things but who realized that there were many more things worthy of accomplishment. Dr. Black's work has circled the globe. It is his monument and will endure.

Plan Ideal Community.

According to newspaper dispatches Kansas City socialists have planned for a town in Missouri wherein everybody is to work and nobody is to suffer from want. There are to be no political bosses, but law and order are to prevail. If the plan works out successfully and everybody lives contentedly in the proposed town socialists will have a fine example to point to in proof of the feasibility of their principles. The Missouri plan is said to have progressed to such an extent that a number of committees are busy seeking a site. One of the leaders in the organization work thus explained the plan.

"The idea is to buy about 12,000 or 15,000 acres and divide it up into tracts to be farmed by members of the organization and their families. Each purchaser will own his land outright, except that a certain portion of all the timber and minerals on the land will belong to the whole community. We will build a public warehouse for the benefit of the whole colony. Every man will be required to do a certain amount of work for the town. There will be no hired help and no town officials. The organization is nonsectarian and nonpolitical. While the movement was started by Socialists, we have members of all political parties. We have word from a leading Socialist in Chicago that 1,000 families in that city have promised to join the colony."

A Tragedy of Real Life.

The death of Dorothy Cooper at Jacksonville state hospital brought to light one of those remarkable disappearances of which we read so much about in the public press. The Cooper woman died Saturday night and Tuesday afternoon services for the dead were held at the Church of Our Savior and the remains were interred in Calvary cemetery.

Over eight years ago Dorothy Cooper disappeared from her home in Willsberry, Pa., and it was as though the earth had swallowed her up. In her wanderings she finally reached Scott county. Here she remained for several months and finally by her actions became such that she was placed under observation in that county. Jan. 29, 1907, she was adjudged insane and placed in Jacksonville state hospital for treatment. There she remained, and there was no knowledge of her identity except that furnished by the Scott county officials and that was only known through her short stay there.

About six months ago her family which had never ceased to search for her received information which was followed up and one of her brothers came here and identified the patient as his sister. He returned home and about ten days ago was summoned again as the woman was seriously ill. He came and returned home again. The brother's name is Michael Hughes. When his sister became suddenly worse he was again notified and Tuesday he came here with his brother, Martin Hughes. Their sister had died before their arrival.

Every day we hear of some one disappearing mysteriously from home. Sometimes it is a man prominent in the community in which he lives. He may have wife and children. The revealing of this pitiful little life story probably is only one of many. Perhaps there are institutions all over the United States similar cases where men and women have become bereft of reason and are unable to tell facts that would lead to discovery by those who are near and dear to them. It is just a small paragraph from a page in the great book of life. Yet it has its pathos and sympathy talk from our hearts for those who had looked so long for this lost one and finally found her only to have her taken away again forever.

MORTUARY

Cooper.

Miss Dorothy Cooper died at Jacksonville State Hospital Saturday evening after an illness of three weeks. She was born in Willsberry, Pa., and disappeared from home over eight years ago. In some manner she got to Scott county and after a few months her actions were such that she was placed under observation. Later she was committed to Jacksonville State hospital for treatment. Her commitment was on January 29, 1907.

Gibbons.

Mrs. Rebecca Gibbons died at the home of her son northeast of the city at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Death was due to ailments incident to old age. She had been confined to her room for about three years but her condition did not become serious until three days ago.

To this union twelve children were born, four of whom survive. They are Jonathan and Mary of this county and Mrs. H. Heavener of San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. G. S. Skeen of San Diego, California.

Mrs. Gibbons joined the Baptist church early in life and was ever a faithful member of that body. She was a woman who was highly respected in the community in which she lived.

CONDEMNATION SUIT SETTLED.

Murrayville Officers Arrange With C. F. Strong for Additional Cemetery Land.

A condemnation suit begun before Judge Thomson yesterday was amicably settled and Murrayville will have a new cemetery as fast as it can be gotten into shape.

For some time progressive residents of that wide awake town have been agitating the idea of a new cemetery suitably located and capable of being properly improved, plated and adorned with flowers and all that goes to make such a place what it should be.

It was decided that a three cornered piece of six acres belonging to C. F. Strong and lying south of the place would fill the bill and negotiations were begun for its purchase but the trustees of the place and Mr. Strong were unable to get together. Mr. Strong wanted $400 an acre and the trustees thought that was too much and being unable to come to an agreement they decided to bring condemnation proceedings before the county court and Wednesday was set for the hearing but before the trial began the suit or proceedings were stopped and an amicable settlement reached whereby Mr. Strong will receive $275 an acre for his land and pay the costs thus far incurred in bringing the suit, about $90.

The managers of the temporal interests of Murrayville are S. F. Socy, Mayor; J. K. Cunningham, J. W. Fanning, Norman C. Carlson, W. A. Wesner, T. N. Bush and Burton Millard with Warren Wright, clerk.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CHOIR.

On account of no services, the members of the Christian church choir have had a vacation of about six weeks and now work will be resumed again next Sunday. The regular rehearsal will be had Friday evening at 6:15 o'clock. The chorus choir adds no small part to the services of the church and their magnificent renditions of anthems have been highly appreciated by the congregation. It may be an interesting fact to note that almost 90 per cent of the choir members are actively engaged in some other useful department of church work and so the church values the loyal services thus rendered.

OLEO MOONSHINE PLANT SOLD AT AUCTION

United States Takes This Method to Collect Taxes.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 31.—The oleomargarine plant of the Narragansett Dairy Co. will be sold at public auction today by the United States government, to recover taxes which the collector of internal revenue alleges to be due and unpaid. The plant was recently seized by the government.

The Narragansett concern is one of three which figured in the federal raid in this city a year ago. Together with other firms in Ohio and Missouri, it was claimed that the oleomargarine makers had evaded a total of $27,000,000 in internal revenue taxes. James S. Orr and Clarence H. Orr, officials of the local concern, were indicted by a federal grand jury a year ago on charges of conspiracy and defrauding the government out of $300,000. The fraud charge was later thrown out of court, but the conspiracy charge was retained. Last May another grand jury returned a new indictment charging Orr with defrauding. The cases, it is expected, will come up for trial early this fall.

The sale of the oleo plant today is the second sale of this kind by the government in Rhode Island. Not long ago the plant of the New England Manufacturing Co. was sold and was bid in for the former owners.

The auctioning of the oleo plant here today is another step in the government's proceedings against the so-called "oleo moonshiners." A sweeping investigation by the internal revenue department uncovered the alleged frauds, extending back for thirteen years. Already a million dollars have been recovered by the government, and many indictments have been returned. Last month the officials of the Capital City Dairy Co., of Columbus, O., were convicted of fraud. Some thirty heads of oleo companies have been given jail sentences.

The government's claim is that more than 100,000 tons of colored oleomargarine have been manufactured, and fraudulently sold as uncolored oleomargarine. That much of this product was sold to consumers as butter is the belief of the government investigators. The vendence against the oleo men was difficult to secure, but by tracing the coloring matter, the ruses were revealed and the defrauders were convicted.

The government's loss in revenue consists of the difference in the taxes. The manufacturers paid only one-quarter of a cent per pound tax, when they should have paid 10 cents per pound. To save this big margin for their personal profit, many unwise methods were used. Certain families have become millionaires in the oleo business.

MARKETING FARM TIMBER

Forest Service Says Ignorance of Woodlot Owners Often Costs Them Dearly

Washington, August.—The marketing of farm timber presents some of the same difficulties, but in an aggravated form, that the farmer meets in selling other crops, says a Forest Service contribution to the Year Book of the department of Agriculture, just issued. The farmer finds it hard to get enough for his timber. Most farmers now sell their saw timber on the stump to a mill man, such sales ordinarily being made for a lump sum. The mill man, experienced in estimating, goes through the woods and sizes up the quantity and value of the timber he wants. The owner, being a farmer and not a lumberman, seldom knows and has only the vaguest idea of what it ought to bring. The consequence of this condition is that the farmer often receives only a small fraction of the actual market value of his stumpage.

Astonishing examples of what a farmer may thus throw away are often encountered by foresters, continues the article. For instance, a Massachusetts farmer sold a million feet of timber to a portable sawmill man for $1,200, and thought he had obtained a good price. His neighbor, however, who knew something about timber, got $7,000 from the very same portable mill man. The first farmer on account of his ignorance, practically presented the mill man with $5,800; the second owner was wise enough to learn before he attempted to sell his timber how much he had and what it ought to bring him in money.

The productive capacity of the 200 million acres of farm lands throughout the country which either have or should have timber growing on them is enormous, says the article. This area is larger than all the national forests put together, and with an annual growth of 200 board feet per acre of saw timber, a moderate allowance under the practice of forestry, it would produce annually forever about 40 billion feet, or the equivalent of the entire lumber cut of the country, in addition to not less than 120 million cords of firewood.

These figures, continues the article, probably never will be realized, for the reason that the present area of farm woodlands is much greater than it will be eventually. For example, woodland comprises 51 per cent of the entire farm area of the South, and undoubtedly much of this land will be put to other uses than timber growing. Nevertheless, farmers of the United States now own at least 250 billion feet of saw timber and 1 and 1/2 billion cords of cordwood, and this timber should produce a substantial part of their incomes. Farmers ought to make the most of their timber, and the public should be interested in this question for the reason that the vast aggregate of farm timber should be available to supplement the other sources of the general supply.

GAVE LONG LIFE TO
EARLY HOME IN CASS COUNTY TUESDAY.

Death Resulted From Pernicious Anaemia — Born in Winchester, Deceased Came to Jacksonville As a Young Man—Began Writing of Dental Treatises in 1866 and Continued Work Until Recently—Served Long as Dean of Dental Department of Northwestern University.

Leaving behind him a record of marvelous accomplishment, Dr. Greene Vardiman Black died Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Walnut Lodge, the farm home of his boyhood. Dr. Black lived for seventy-nine years and for more than half a century he devoted almost his every thought to the development of scientific problems related to dentistry. It was in 1910 that a banquet was given in his honor in Chicago where dentists from all parts of the United States and a great many foreign countries gathered to do him honor and present to him gold and silver tokens in material acknowledgment of their debt to him.

In experimental work, in invention, in hundreds of pamphlets and books Dr. Black can be truly said to have accomplished more for dental science than any other one man. At the banquet in 1910 the guest of honor was called upon last, and in a characteristic, modest way, framed his thanks briefly to the men who had gathered to do him honor. In closing he gave expression to the chief thought that was in his mind when he said that he did not have a goodbye for his friends but rather a goodnight. He said though he had passed the mark of three score and ten, that he did not believe that his work was over—that there were many things in his mind that ought to be done and that he hoped he might be able to do them. "I love the work I have been doing and I am not ready to quit." And so it was given to him even in the years following that night to accomplish still other great things for the profession to which he had unselfishly given the best years of his life.

No Personal Thought.

Dr. Black was so wrapped up in his work, so intent on the great things that he was accomplishing, that he had no thought of material gain or personal aggrandizement. His purpose was to solve unsolved problems in science, to perfect methods and apparatus, and to so develop theories that they would become practical aids to the dental profession and thus to humanity. His work was for all men, and with singular self-forgetfulness he gave unsparringly of his time and his great mental energy for the world at large. While his work was such that he came to be a recognized dental authority the world over, his simple habits of life and the kindly approachableness of his manner never changed.

The stories of his deep and unassuming interest in young and struggling practitioners are many, and he had that quality of heart gentleness which marks many men who are really great. His long life has closed; he has not lived in vain, and no monument could be erected in his memory which would give half the glory to his name that will come through the years from the recollection of his work. The mere statement that he contributed largely to the text books and literature of dentistry conveys but little idea of how large his contributions have been in this line. A list of pamphlets and books from his pen was compiled several years ago and occupies twenty pamphlet pages. He began writing in 1866 and from that time dental treatises came steadily from his pen, his activity in this line continuing until but a few months ago.

Died at Boyhood Home.

Dr. Black's death was caused by pernicious anaemia. He had been afflicted with this disease for some time and the condition became such that it was his great desire to go to the old farm house in Cass county which he loved so well. He was taken there two weeks ago and for a time seemed to improve, but a week

ALDERMANIC FORM

Editor Journal:

If you will grant me a few lines in your paper I would like to say that the aldermanic form of government is the most satisfactory form. Because it does not centralize our government, nor is it a government of taxation without representation as the commission form has proven to be. The street department has been a number of times requested for the sake of safety to give some attention to dirt streets within the city that are in a dangerous condition. This department will tell you that there are no funds for this purpose, but you may see this department repairing and sweeping pavements in the central district, while allowing dangerous, and damaging conditions to exist elsewhere.

Now I say that we need officials who will realize that they are to serve for all the people, and not exclusively for the central part. We do not desire to have a Goddess of Liberty burning brightly in one part and a candle giving light in another. Now give us justice, safety first, treat all fairly and serve the interests of all the city as nearly as possible. We are the ones that pay the freight.

GETTING OUTDOORS.

Getting outdoors has become the great American remedy for everything including business and he fox trot. America contains more outdoors than any nation. If all the citizens of the United States were to get outdoors at once they would have to talk with each other through megaphones. It is possible for almost every free-born American to go outdoors at no expense at all and breathe in huge quantities of ozone and god spirits.

Ozone clears the brain, strengthens the legs, improves the digestion, rectifies the temper and makes one more particular about voting for the right candidate. After a man has spent a couple of years outdoors he is usually a philosopher who ignores the high cost of living and cannot wait to quarrel with the waiter before eating his meals.

Many people spend vast sums in getting outdoors. By taking a wad since his condition became such that it was thought best to notify the members of his family, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Black, their son, Gilmer, and Miss Clara Black were in California when they received the telegram notifying them of their father's condition and they returned at once, arriving Sunday morning. For several days they have been with Dr. Carl E. Black and other members of the family here and all were at Dr. Black's bedside when the end came.

The deceased was born in Scott county Aug. 3, 1836, and was the son of William and Mary Black. He was a great-grandson of Capt. William Black, an officer of the militia in North Carolina just before the Mecklenburg rebellion, and one of the first officers to refuse to take the oath of allegiance to the British crown. Dr. Black's father was born in Milledgeville, Ga., in 1796. In 1825 he went to Tennessee and there married Miss S. Vaughn, removing to Scott county about nine years later. After a residence of ten years in Scott county the family moved to Cass county, settling upon the farm where Dr. Black's final days were passed. His boyhood was passed upon that farm and every foot of it held for him some dear memory. In the latter years of his life, when seeking rest from some consuming labor, there was no place that seemed to give him such rest of mind and body as this farm home. Last year he spent much of the summer there, and it was with reluctance that he left in the fall to return to Chicago.

Began Practice at Winchester.

Dr. Black left the farm at the age of sixteen and for a time made his home with his brother, Dr. G. Black, of Clayton, who served as lieutenant colonel in the Civil war and was twice a member of the Illinois legislature. The younger man read medicine with his uncle, and at the age of twenty-one began the study of dentistry with Dr. J. C. Speer at Mt. Sterling. Afterward he established a dental office in Winchester, where he remained until 1862. He was married in 1860 to Jane L. Coughenower, who died Aug. 26, 1863. In 1865 he married Miss Elizabeth Akers Devoport, who survives him, together with the following sons and daughters: Dr. Carl E. Black, of Jacksonville; Miss Clara Black, of Chicago; Dr. Arthur D. Black, of Chicago, and Mrs. Mark Baldwin, of Duluth, Minn.

Dr. Black served as a sergeant in the Civil war and was engaged much of his time in special scouting duty. He received an injury to his knee joint which kept him for six months in a hospital in Louisville, Ky. Subsequently he came to Jacksonville and opened a dental office here, first applying himself to the study of chemistry and establishing a complete working laboratory in connection with his office. He organized a class in chemistry among the public school teachers which he taught several years, and also took a prominent part in the medical organizations of the city and county. With passing years he became widely known as an author and lecturer on scientific topics pertaining to his profession. His writings have gained such prominence that they have been translated into many languages and are considered standard authority on the subjects discussed. Original drawings have been features of all Dr. Black's books.

Made Important Inventions.

In addition to his work as a writer and teacher, Dr. Black was an inventor and it was he who designed and patented one of the first cord transmission dental engines. The present methods of preparing cavities in teeth, and the methods of inserting and making gold and amalgam largely resulted from his investigations. For more than a quarter of a century he has stood pre-eminent as an original worker and his name is known among dental and medical men the world over. For a period of ten years ending in 1880 he lectured on pathology, both general and dental, in the Missouri Dental College in St. Louis. Subsequently from 1886 to 1889, he lectured in the Chicago College of Dental Surgery; then he became identified with the dental department of the University of Iowa, from which position he was the first president of the State Board of Dental Examiners in Illinois; served as president of the Illinois State Dental society and the American Dental association, and for a long period of years represented Northwestern university in the American Association of Dental Faculties. He was president of the section on pathology of the International Dental congress during the World's Fair in St. Louis, also of the Panama-Pacific congress now in session in San Francisco.

He was awarded the first gold medal by the dental society of the state of New York for scientific research and also the first Miller prize, the latter being a gold medal voted by the International Dental Federation for the most valuable contributions to the literature and scientific advancement of the profession. Dr. F. Aguilar of Madrid, was commissioned to come to Chicago to make the presentation in person.

Best Contribution to Dentistry. In recognition of his distinguished services to the dental profession a banquet was given in Dr. Black's honor January 29, 1910, in the gold room of the Congress hotel in Chicago by the Chicago Dental society. At this assemblage four hundred representatives were present from Canada, Europe, South America, Australia and every part of the United States to do him homage.

In referring to Dr. Black several years ago an eminent physician who knew him well said: "In the history of a people men are born whose wisdom and logic command attention, and they are chosen to guide the ship of state and to shape the destiny of a nation. The sons of Illinois have always been active in every field of human endeavor. In statesman ship the name of the immortal Lincoln stands supreme. The lives of Grant and Logan have added luster to the history of the state, and their fame is the nation's glory. The legal profession gave us Chief Justice Fuller. In theology the great logicians, David Swing and H. W. Thomas, were towers of strength. In medicine, the successful organizer and profound scholar, N. S. Davis, ranked among the foremost physicians of his time. In surgery, the incomparable Senn was the light of the world, a benefactor to mankind. On Aug. 3, 1836, in Scott county, Ill., a boy was born who was destined to become a leader of men, to delve deep into unsolved problems and to bring blessings not only to the people of his time but all generations yet to be. Unmindful of his own well being and filled with the desire to alleviate human suffering, he worked day and night. The results of his efforts the world knows and appreciates. What Lincoln was in statesmanship; what Grant was at the head of the army; what Melville Fuller was as the chief justice of the United States; what N. S. Davis was in medicine; what the master surgeon Senn was in surgery, in the science and art of dentistry is that distinguished man, Dr. G. V. Black. In recognition of his services as a teacher, writer, investigator, scientist, and as a lover of humanity, we may place our wreaths of laurel at his feet."

His Uplift Work.

Another said of him: "We need not discuss the work of Dr. Black for, after all, the greatest achievement is that he has left his impression upon dentistry by the intellectual uplift he has given us in enabling us to understand and appreciate the scientific method as applied to our work." Dr. Black's life work is his honor and we can but express our appreciation of what he has done for us and say, God bless him for what he has done, not only for the dental profession but for the uplift, for the help, for the benefit that he has conferred upon humanity at large." Dr. Black was given the degree of D.D.S. by Missouri Dental college in 1877. In 1884 he received the M.D. degree from Chicago Medical college, and in 1892 Sc. D. from Illinois college and LL. D. from Northwestern university in 1898.

"As a man he is really the marvel of the age for in his lifetime he has accomplished more perhaps than can be credited to any other one man in the dental profession. It was, indeed, a great day for dentistry when Dr. Black was born, and when one contemplates the vast amount of work that he has done, it seems almost beyond comprehension that so much was accomplished even through the long years of his devoted work."

'MORNING GLANCES' (By Gosh)

Detroit pushed the White Sox further down in the pennant race yesterday when they won by a score of 9 to 8. Both teams hit the ball hard but the Tigers made two more than the Sox and in addition they were benefitted by the Sox fielding slips, the Rowland clan totalling four errors during the afternoon.

Ty Cobb went to the plate for the nineteenth time yesterday and delivered the hit that won the game. Cobb had no made a hit up to that time in his eighteen trips. Still the Georgia Peach had three stolen bases yesterday so he must have gotten on in some other way besides hitting the ball.

Stallings surely has his Braves making a strong bid for the pennant at the present time. The Braves took a double header from Cincinnati yesterday. The Braves won both games by score of 2 to 0. Each team got four hits in the first game and in the second game Hughes held Cincinnati to three hits while the Braves got five off of Schneider.

New York and Chicago divided a double header yesterday. In the first game Jimmy Lavender cut his niche in the baseball hall of fame by pitching a no hit game. The score was 2 to 0 in favor of the Cubs. In the second game Vaughn and Adams had nothing to puzzle the Giants and they won by a score of 7 to 1.

Cleveland shut out St. Louis yesterday by a score of 6 to 0. Mitchell allowed St. Louis but three hits. St. Louis made even errors which added materially in the scoring for the victors.

Philadelphia and St. Louis broke even in a double header yesterday. The Phillies won the first while St. Louis took the second, hitting Demaree hard. In the first game Alexander kept St. Louis' hits well scattered.

RACING RENEWED AT EMPIRE CITY PARK.

Continued Rains Make Track Heavy and Tiring to Horses—Lee Axworthy Loses First Race of Season to Peter Scott.

Yonkers, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The first Grand Circuit meet here in five years opened today at Empire City Park. Continued rains made the track heavy and tiring to the horses and public form was completely upset. There was no betting.

In the $5,000 race for 2:08 trotters which was the feature of the program Lee Axworthy 2:03 1-4; hitherto unbeaten this season was defeated in crushing style by Peter Scott. In the heavy going the colt that won the fastest three heat race on record at Cleveland a fortnight ago, could do no better than take third money when the heats were in 2:09 3-4, 2:10 and 2:09 3-4.

Walter Cox of Dover, N. H., won second money with Worthy Prince in this race and first money with Queen Abess and Jeannette Speed in the other two events on the card. Both of these races were closely contested but the horses tired badly and the time was slow.

Owing to the heavy track, Director I. did not start to beat his record of 1:58. He will try Thursday.

NED SAWYER ELIMINATES CHICK EVANS IN NATIONAL GOLF TOURNEY

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 31.—Ned Sawyer of Wheaton, Ill., finally crushed an ancient hoodoo at the National Amateur Golf championship tournament here today and Chick Evans of Chicago again failed to accomplish one of his greatest athletic ambitions.

Sawyer eliminated Evans 6 up and 5 in the first round of match play. It was his first important victory over the Western champion in several years and they have opposed each other on many occasions.

Evans played an erratic game. National Champion Outimet and Jerome Travers romped home with easy victories.

PRIMING SUBMARINES FOR OCEAN TRIP

Four Lieutenants of Army Will Try Long Voyage.

San Francisco, Aug. 31.—Four lieutenants in the United States navy have been thrown down the gauntlet to the traducers of the United States submarine. The navy department has granted them permission to attempt an epoch-making voyage of 2,200 miles from San Francisco to Hawaii. The submarine flotilla is being prepared for this long ocean trip, which will determine whether the claims of long cruising away from their base of supplies can be substantiated. The officers who are anxious to be off in their under-sea craft are Lieut. J. V. Ogan of the K-7, the flotilla commander; Lieut. J. G. Chew of the K-3, Lieut. J. P. Olding of the K-4 and Lieut. J. H. Lewis of the K-8.

The long journey will be undertaken this month. The submarine will endeavor to make the long run unaided, with an unrelieved supply of fuel oil and without outside aid to their commissaries. For approximately two weeks the ship's company of 22 officers and men aboard each of the submarines will live in the cramped, restricted quarters of the little under-water boats, with no exercise save an occasional turn on the small sea-swept deck when the weather permits.

The submarines that will make the voyage are of the Holland type and are the latest word in submarine construction, with the exception of the bigger vessels now being constructed, known as "sea-going" submarines. The boats are to be stationed at Honolulu as a new division, which will bring the Hawaiian submarine defense up to two divisions. The K boats are approximately 160 feet long over all, 17 feet in the beam and 500 tons displacement. The boats are capable of making at least thirteen knots hour after hour, day in and day out. They are equipped with the Diesell oil-burn engines, for use in surface cruising. These engines eat up 25 gallons of fuel every hour. It is figured that each vessel will carry over 4,200 gallons of fuel.

The K boats of the Atlantic fleet recently made a long run without assistance from Key West to New York. Officially the K submarines are given a cruising radius of 5,000 miles, which means that although they have heretofore been restricted to coast defense duty, should the need arise they could traverse this distance without replenishing fuel. But it has become known recently that this class of craft is capable of even greater radius.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for four years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DRIED CORN.

Many women who shine as good cooks fear to attempt to can corn, they know it can be accomplished successfully in the home kitchen, but prefer to leave the task to regular canneries.

The following Maine recipe for dried corn is well tested and the results are always satisfactory: Use sweet corn, husk and remove the silk, and boil fifteen minutes. Do not salt. When cool, score the kernels with a sharp knife and then cut down. Do not cut too close to the cob, however, or it will contain flakes of the cob.

Now it must be dried in a sunny place. If you have a quilting or curtain frame set it in the yard and cover with strong cloth; spread the corn on this and cover with netting or screen. Lacking the frame, use an old screen door or anything that will allow the corn to dry from below as well as from above.

It may require two or more days of sunshine, this depends on the size of the kernels and on the heat of the sun.

After it is sun-dried, have the oven hot and heat the corn through in it. This destroys any organisms in the corn and insures its keeping well. Tie the dried corn up in little bags; salt bags are the right size, and hang away in a dry place.

When the green corn is gone and it is time to use the dried article, wash it well and soak over night in sweet milk. Cook it in this milk and season with butter, pepper and salt.

It is excellent fried for breakfast or luncheon. To prepare it in this way, soak it over night in cold salted water and drain well. Have hot butter in a frying pan and cook the corn in it with a cover at first, until it has steamed very tender, then without a cover until it is well browned.

Succotash can be made in the heart of winter with dried corn and canned string beans that will taste as fine as the mid-summer article and make a splendid change from the winter vegetables.

Can the beans after they are washed, tipped, tailed and strung, by boiling twenty minutes in water enough to cover. Add one teaspoon of cream of tartar to each quart of beans and pack into sterilized fruit cans. Seal at once. Rinse the beans well in cold water when you use them and add a little soda to the succotash.

The cream of tartar is harmless and preserves the beans, keeping them firm and bright colored, but if not well washed off and neutralized with the soda it will taste slightly.

Questions and Answers.

Mary B. asks for a recipe for cucumber salad by return mail and neglects to give an address. The salad depends for its goodness on the fresh crispness of the cucumber, so lay them in ice-water for an hour before using. Peel and cut cucumber in half lengthwise and lay, cut side down, on a cutting board and slice across with a sharp knife. Lay them on a flat dish, without disturbing their shape, and cover with salad dressing. Garnish with fresh young onions and lettuce.

Tomorrow—Eggplant cookery.

CASES OF INTEREST.

Keeping the Student on the Water Wagon.

(West Publishing Co.)

Whether or not the students of the University of Michigan are addicted to the use of strong drink does not appear in the preamble to Michigan Compiled Laws, Section 5392. The act makes it unlawful "for any person by himself, his clerk or agent, to sell or give to any student in attendance at any public or private institution of learning in this state any spirituous or intoxicating drinks, except when prescribed by a regular physician for medical purposes". The court in People v. Damm, 149 Northwestern Reporter, 1002, holds that a saloonkeeper is bound to know that a person to whom he or his barkeeper sells intoxicating liquor is not a student, and that the act is not repugnant to the Constitution. "It is said in argument, and it is true, that the effect of the legislation is to deny to adult students privileges enjoyed by other adult citizens, and to deny them during the school year rights and privileges which they may enjoy during vacation. So citizens living in a local option county may be, in the same way, stripped of privileges which are enjoyed by their neighbors in an adjoining county. A law which makes it impossible, if not impossible, that students shall patronize drinking places, is not so clearly beyond the police power that the courts may declare it invalid."

"One of the young men to whom liquor was sold drank three or more times in respondent's saloon and afterwards visited one or more other saloons. He was arrested the same evening, charged as a disorderly person. An investigation by the university authorities resulted in his being suspended for the balance of the year. It is possible that the reasons of discipline and morals which influenced the university authorities in the particular case affected the Legislature in a general way, and induced the enactment of this preventive legislation."
